SPECIAL ASSEMBLY“Science in Everyday Life!”-

The Science Department conducted a Special Science Assembly “INNOV8” for Classes 1-12 in the month of November to promote curiosity, creativity and scientific thinking among students. Each class displayed a unique presentation reflecting simple yet meaningful scientific concepts.

The Science Assembly began with a beautiful welcome song presented by our talented students. The song highlighted the wonders of science in nature, everyday life and the curiosity that drives young minds. It set a positive, energetic mood for the entire programme. Students performed a variety of interesting science activities, demonstrating concepts in a fun and understandable way. These hands-on activities encouraged critical thinking and helped students connect science with real-life experiences. Students presented creative demonstrations to show the difference between healthy food and junk food. Sugar content experiment using soft drinks, healthy plate display showing the balance of nutrients. The message was : "Healthy food gives energy; junk food takes it away".

The performance encouraged everyone to make better food choices for a healthier future. One of the highlights of the assembly was the Periodic Table Dance. Students represented different elements through creative movements and colourful props. This lively presentation helped everyone remember the elements in a fun and musical way. Students performed a creative skit where students visited laboratories of famous scientists like Albert Einstein, Marie Curie, Isaac Newton and Charles Darwin through a “time machine”. The interactive act highlighted their contributions to science and left the audience inspired and amazed.

The assembly successfully sparked scientific interest among students and encouraged them to observe, explore and appreciate science in everyday life. It was an engaging and enriching experience for all. A quick and exciting “Brain Teaser session” had student eagerly participating. Those who answered correctly were rewarded with “saplings” as a symbol of growth and sustainability.

The gifted saplings were later planted in the Kings School campus, encouraging students to contribute to a greener environment and reinforcing the message of environmental responsibility.

Mock Parliament session

Our school organised an assembly highlighting a Mock Parliament session on November 26, 2025 to sensitize students about pressing environmental issues. The theme chosen was “Lack of Water and Water Pollution”, reflecting the urgent need to address the global water crisis and its impact on human life, agriculture and ecosystems. The event was conducted in the A. K. Hall with enthusiastic participation from students of classes III- XI.

Class IV presented the significance of various types of soil and how they support the growth of different crops, emphasizing the role of agriculture in society. Class V engaged the audience with a lively Connection Game, where participants identified countries using given clues, promoting geographical awareness. Class VI organised a colourful Fashion Parade showcasing tribal communities, highlighting their unique traditions and lifestyles.

Classes VI -VIII concluded the assembly with a patriotic song dedicated to our country, filling the atmosphere with pride and harmony.

The assembly of IX -XI began with the Speaker of the House calling the session to order and introducing the agenda. Student representatives took on roles as Ministers, Opposition Leaders and Members of Parliament, creating a realistic parliamentary atmosphere.

The Mock Parliament not only gave students a platform to voice their concerns but also helped them understand the democratic process of debate and decision making. It highlighted the seriousness of water scarcity and pollution, encouraging everyone to take small but meaningful steps in daily life.

The event was a resounding success, combining learning with civic responsibility.
